Community Lunch Hub

This is part of the Bainbridge W.I. 'Afternoon Meetings' project.

Everyone is welcome. You do not have to be a W.I. member or even a woman to come along! A Soup and Sweet lunch is provided, followed by tea or coffee. (We would welcome donations of £5 for the lunch.) After the lunch there is a speaker. You can come along just for the lunch or just to hear the speaker if you so wish. Please arrive for the lunch between 12 and 12:30 p.m. or 2:00 p.m. for the speaker. The next meeting at Thornton Rust Institute is:

- Monday 22nd August. Lunch followed by a talk from local author and retired GP Carole Tetlow.

Apology

In describing the result of the fancy dress competition at the Platinum Jubilee celebrations, we did not realise that there were two joint winners. Alongside Pippa Cromey-Hawke another winner was Jemima Griffiths. We do apologise to Jemima!

With one voice . . .

Marie Hartley devoted her life to preserving a record of the Dales. The artefacts she and Joan Ingleby accumulated formed the foundation of the Dales Countryside Museum in Hawes.

She was also keen to preserve the views of Dalesfolk. She told Bill Mitchell, the former editor of The Dalesman, when visiting her, of the value of a piece of new equipment, the tape recorder.

Bill purchased one and used it when interviewing a farmer, who voiced his disagreement with certain policies (perhaps of the Forestry Commission). He expressed himself warmly and forcefully.

When the interview had finished, Bill Mitchell rewound a little and played some of what had been recorded, just to see whether the machine had done its job. When the farmer heard this, he said, "See! That chap agrees with me!"

Let sleeping docks lie

Wild flowers are beautiful in any season of the year. Do not be tempted to pick them – the law gives them some protection. Let them go on to set seed and thereby multiply.

Agriculture

Praise befits you, O God. Psalm 65:1

You care for the land and water it; you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with corn, for so you have ordained it. You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops. You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance. The grasslands of the desert overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness. The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with corn; they shout for joy and sing.
